

Give the gift of learning

Donate today, and make a difference that lasts a lifetime...

At Nant-y-Cwm Steiner School we are committed to supporting parents on low incomes. We believe that Steiner education should be accessible to all. However, as an independent school we do not receive government funding. We are sustained by the fees that families pay, our fundraising efforts and donations. From just £3 a month you can help families, who could not otherwise afford it, give their child the gift of Steiner Education.

Your donation, whether large or small, will enable us to offer more children access to this unique education that nurtures head, heart and hands. We are a registered charity and all funds raised go towards providing this education.
